QCA launches executive search service

The Quoted Companies Alliance (QCA) announces the launch of the QCA Search Service. In partnership with Moon Consulting Ltd, a leading executive search business, the QCA now offers its members in the small and mid-cap quoted company sector a bespoke executive recruitment service for senior UK board directors.

Conducted by Moon Consulting, the QCA Search Service covers mainly board level roles, including Chief Executive Officer, Chairman, Managing Director, Partner, Human Resource Director, Sales Director, Operations Director and Finance Directors. The service also provides the recruitment of Non-Executive Directors and mentor roles to a variety of companies from pre-IPO businesses to quoted and listed companies. The QCA Search Service manages advertised assignments and confidential search and selection campaigns, all underpinned by a comprehensive contact database.

Vanessa Moon, Director of Moon Consulting Ltd, said: "We have been in discussions about working with the Quoted Companies Alliance for some time and we both wanted to ensure that we were offering a unique but very personal service to our joint contacts. This service fits very well with Moon Consulting's core values of being distinctive, ethical and approachable in all our undertakings. I am very pleased to be working with the QCA on this new venture."

Tim Ward, Chief Executive of the Quoted Companies Alliance, said: "We have considered how best to create a valuable and diverse executive search service for our members to add to the wide range of services we currently provide. We believe we have found the right approach."
